ERNST & YOUNG Development perspectives of the aeronautical sector by 2016

Highlights of the presentation of Mr. Sami ZAOUI Partner Ernst & Young Tunisia

The national industrial strategy aims at diversifying the portfolio of economic activity by supporting the historical sectors orientation towards more added-value activities as well as reinforcing the emerging sectors of the economy. The aeronautical industry is at the heart of this new strategy and is now positioned at the cutting-edge of Tunisian industry. The development of the aeronautical sector in Tunisia is currently boosted by the establishment of large contracting companies in Tunisia, allowing aeronautical subcontractors to leverage off the competitiveness of the country, based on qualified human resources and an orientation focused on technological development.

It is in this context that the Tunisian aeronautical sector and the development perspectives of the sector will be presented.

14:35-15:05

FIPA TUNISIA - Foreign Investment Promotion Agency

Ms Mongia KHEMIRI – FIPA General Director

FIPA was created in 1995 under the umbrella of the Ministry for Development and international co-operation. The agency employs 70 people and has a network of 5 offices located in Brussels, London, Cologne, Milan and Paris.

The role of the agency is to promote Tunisia as a site for investments, to help foreign investors settle in Tunisia and to propose measures to improve the investment environment. FIPA has been certified ISO 9001 v2000 by Bureau Veritas Quality International (BVQI) since September 2003. This certification was confirmed in 2007 by TÜV CERT from TÜV Rheinland Industries Service GmbH.

Investment opportunities in the ENFIDHA Industrial Park Tunisia

M. Isnardo CARTA – CEO

South of Tunis (the capital), between Hammamet and Sousse, the Tunisian Government has granted to the company DIET, ownership of an area measuring two million square metres, where is being developed the new INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT OF ENFIDHA.

Companies are welcome to invest in the area and create production branches, thus making the most of the many advantages Tunisia has to offer. The lots have already been urbanized, ready for sale, and the first buildings have been constructed.
